

Del Valle Dog Club Training Rules and Regulations

- Each dog must wear a collar attached to a 6-foot or shorter leash. No chain or retractable (flexi) leashes please.
- Acceptable training collars include, but are not limited to, a slip collar (choke chain), a pinch (prong) collar, Gentle Leader or similar head collar, or in some cases a buckle collar. Special training collars should never be left on an unsupervised dog. Your instructor will help you choose the correct collar for your dog on the first night of class.
- All dogs are to be kept on a leash at the handler's side in the building and surrounding areas unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Children must remain seated during training classes.
- The owner/handler must inform the instructor if their dog has bitten a dog or person.
- The instructor has the authority to excuse any overly aggressive or out of control dog from class. If dropped from the class the instructor must notify Del Valle Dog Club Board of Directors immediately. The unused portion of the training fees will be returned to the dog's owner by mail.
- Handlers are required to clean up after their dogs inside and outside of The Barn.
- Drop-ins are not allowed in the Puppy or Beginning classes. Drop-ins are only allowed in the Advanced and Rally classes after a dog has completed an entire session. Please check with the instructor for space availability.
- There are no make-ups or refunds for missed classes.
- Dogs must be current on all vaccinations. Puppies must have received at least 2 rounds of the Parvo combo vaccine prior to the start of class. Rabies vaccine is required of all dogs over 6 months old. Proof of vaccinations must be brought to the first night of class.
- Dogs must be in good health. Any dog that appears ill or lame will not be allowed to attend class.
- All classes are held in The Barn in Livermore. The address is 3131 Pacific Avenue, nearest cross-street is Dolores St.
